Evelin Georgi further expands international distribution

New Sales Director at Edition Cantz

Esslingen, Germany, 17. April 2019

Since January 2019, Evelin Georgi, an internationally experienced book expert, is responsible for sales at Edition Cantz, Esslingen, Germany. Evelin Georgi studied Business Administration and English in Tuebingen, Germany and worked for fourteen years in international sales at Hatje Cantz, including two years as Sales Director. She subsequently worked as Head of Sales at Reel Art Press in London.

"I am very pleased that Ms. Georgi is supporting us in positioning Edition Cantz internationally as the first address for high-quality catalogs and art books," says Heinz Wurzel, owner of the Wurzel Mediengruppe, Esslingen, Germany to which Edition Cantz also belongs.

"The most important goal is to make Edition Cantz better known internationally among museums and the art book trade. We specialize in high-quality books and offer comprehensive services, from printing and catalog design to the creation of artist databases and distribution," Evelin Georgi emphasizes. She is currently in the process of expanding her distribution network internationally. New distribution partnerships are being formed and contacts with museums and art booksellers are being expanded and intensified. Georgi: "We want to further expand classic sales channels such as bookstores, museums, and direct sales in order to increase focus even more strongly on Edition Cantz among all those interested in art and books, also internationally. With social media activities beyond retail trade, we aim to reach young target groups and end customers."
